"We play it on a guitar" ...

SAID MOHR TO GRUBER
IN THE HOLY NIGHT

Do you want to feel the true spirit of Christmas?

Then let us invite you to join our GRUBER-MOHR memorial & torchlight procession in Arnsdorf. The little village where the melody of „Silent Night!“ Holy Night!“ has been composed by Franz-Xaver Gruber on Christmas eve in 1818.

24th OF DECEMBER

15.15 H - TRANSPORTATION TO ARNSDORF

with an oldtimer train, leaving from Salzburg Lokalbahn located next to the Centralstation to Arnsdorf/Lamprechtshausen. You will be greeted with traditional music. You can donate, in the train, for our GRUBER-MOHR-FONDS, from „Licht ins Dunkel“ that helps our local families with financial troubles. When you arrive at Arnsdorf station you will be guided to Arnsdorf village (app. 20 minutes by foot).

16.30 H - MEMORIAL CELEBRATION

at the Silent-Night-Place in Arnsdorf, music from local volkgroups will put you in Christmas spirit. The Angel of the „Arnsdorf Lightbringers“ will give christmas blessings and together we will sing „Silent Night! Holy Night!“ at the end.

17.00 H - TORCHLIGHT PROCESSION TO OBERNDORF

Torches will light up the same path that Gruber & Mohr used to walk to Oberndorf in the past. This procession will be guided (app. 1 hour). At the Silent Night Chappel, we join together to sing „Silent Night! Holy Night!“ a last time. With our best wishes for a peacefull & Merry Christmas, we say goodbye to you. (Footpath to the Oberndorf LOKALBAHN station will be app. 15 min.)

DETAILS

Torches can be bought in Arnsdorf before procession.

The procession path is partly a bit hilly and contains stairs.

The ticket to Arnsdorf and back is free of charge.

The returnticket from Oberndorf to Salzburg is valid until midnight.
